

It's all about....

DISCOVER

ENGINEERING CAMP

Who: Current 6th through 10th graders.

What: Team-based problem-solving activities requiring creativity and persistence.

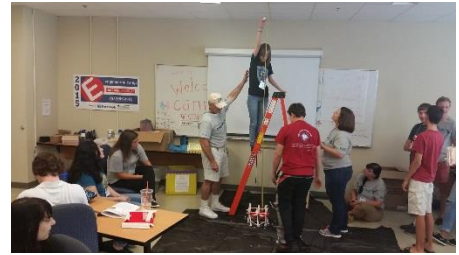

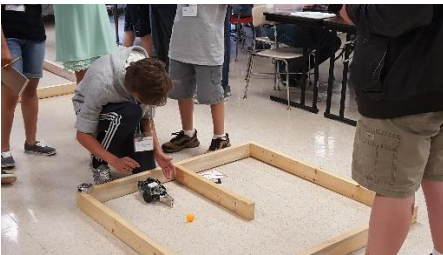

Where: On the Spindale campus of Isothermal Community College.

When: 8:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. the week of June 24-28, 2019.

Cost: $325 – This includes daily lunches & snacks, a T-shirt and all materials.

Full scholarships are guaranteed to the first 15 applicants who request assistance.

Later applicants may receive financial assistance if funding is available.

For more information and to apply, visit us:

The web: <http://www.isothermal.edu/engineeringcamp/>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/engineeringcamp>

Or contact Dale Gaddis, Engineering Camp Director at dgaddis@isothermal.edu

A partnership endeavor of NC State and Isothermal, the engineering camp is designed to engage participants in applying the engineering design principles while exploring the Grand Challenges of Engineering and discovering how engineering can be used to help people, improve lives, and change the world.

ISO THERMAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE

NC STATE UNIVERSITY